

WARPED TOUR HUB

Privacy Policy & Terms of Use

Last updated: August 17, 2026

Warped Tour Hub (warpedtourhub.com) is a fan-built, not-for-profit archive of the Vans Warped Tour, covering its original 1995–2019 run as well as its current and future tours. It is not a ticketing platform, does not sell anything, and does not require an account to use.

This document explains what happens to any information you share with us, and the rules for using the site and its content. It applies to warpedtourhub.com and its associated pages.

Rights holder	Unite The United, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization

Part I — Privacy Policy

1. The short version

We don't collect personal information. There are no accounts, no purchases, no email sign-ups, and no forms on this site that ask for your name, email address, phone number, or physical address.

We do store the photos, posters, and other media featured throughout the archive, including anything voluntarily submitted by fans (see Section 3 below). The site is moderated on a best-effort basis, and anyone can report content — for reasons like plagiarism, offensive material, content unrelated to Warped Tour, or at the request of someone shown in it — see Part II, Section 9.

2. The community story form (Survey123)

Warped Tour Hub uses an Esri Survey123 form to let fans submit memories, stories, or corrections. This form asks only for an optional nickname or alias — never your real name, email, phone number, or address. Submitting anything beyond a nickname is your choice, not something we request. Please don't include personal information about yourself or anyone else in an open text field.

3. Automatic technical data

Like any website, ours runs on hosting infrastructure (Amazon Web Services / CloudFront) that automatically logs standard technical information — things like IP address, browser type, and general access times — for security and to keep the site running. This is standard server behavior, not something we actively collect, review, or use for marketing. We have no marketing activity and nothing to sell your information to.

4. Third-party embeds (ArcGIS StoryMaps)

The archive's individual year pages are built using ArcGIS StoryMaps, a product of Esri. When you open a story, you're briefly interacting with Esri's platform. Esri may set its own cookies or collect its own technical data under its own privacy policy. We don't control this and this policy doesn't cover it — see Esri's privacy policy directly at esri.com/en-us/privacy/overview.

5. Ticket & external links

While the Warped Tour Hub hosts links to affiliated external sites for Warped Tour ticket sales and/or merchandise, it also links to non-profit organizations connected to the tour's history. Each of these links leads to a third-party website with its own separate privacy policy and terms of use, unrelated to and unaffiliated with the Warped Tour Hub. Once you leave our site, that third party's policies apply, not ours — we don't see, collect, or store anything from those transactions or visits.

6. Cookies

Warped Tour Hub itself does not set tracking or advertising cookies. Warped Tour Hub seeks to be in compliance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the ePrivacy Directive, and as such would not request nor automatically use non-essential cookies for tracking or advertising without prior consent from visitors.

7. Children

The Warped Tour Hub is not intended for users under 13 years of age. While we don't request or store any information about a user's age or birthdate, we ask that anyone who suspects a user is underage report the relevant communication, upload, or comment to us, so it can be restricted or removed.

8. Changes to this policy

This Privacy Policy is subject to change. Any such changes will be made publicly available here, with an updated "last updated" date, for your review.

Part II — Terms of Use

1. Acceptance

Continued access and usage of the Warped Tour Hub is considered to be an acceptance of this Privacy Policy and these Terms of Use. If you don't agree, please don't use the site.

2. What this site is

Warped Tour Hub is a fan-built, not-for-profit archive documenting the Vans Warped Tour, from its original 1995–2019 run through its current and future tours. While this site does advertise and link to external sites where Vans Warped Tour tickets and merchandise may be purchased, the Warped Tour Hub itself does not sell tickets, merchandise, or any product or service. It exists solely to document and celebrate the tour's history, past and present, for the community that lives it.

3. No affiliation with Vans, Live Nation, or Insomniac

Warped Tour Hub is not affiliated with, endorsed by, sponsored by, or operated by Vans, LLC, Live Nation Entertainment, Insomniac Holdings, LLC, or any current or former Warped Tour promoter, ticketing provider, or licensing entity. None of those parties have funded, reviewed, or approved this project. "Vans," "Warped Tour," and any related names, logos, or marks are trademarks of their respective owners and are used here only to identify and describe the historical subject matter of this archive.

4. External links & third-party sites

The Warped Tour Hub hosts links to affiliated external sites for Warped Tour ticket sales and/or merchandise, as well as links to sponsored or associated non-profit organizations. The Warped Tour Hub is not liable or responsible for any actions or activity that occurs on any external, unaffiliated site linked to or advertised here.

Ticket links. We may link to the official Vans Warped Tour ticketing page so fans can purchase tickets for current tours. Any purchase happens entirely on that third party's site. We do not process, see, or store any payment or purchase information, we are not a party to that transaction, and we are not responsible for ticketing, pricing, refunds, event changes, or anything else related to it.

Non-profit & organization links. We link to non-profits and organizations that have participated in or supported Warped Tour over the years, to represent their historical or ongoing involvement. Linking to an organization is not an endorsement, partnership, or affiliation in either direction. We are not officially affiliated with any organization we link to, they have not reviewed or approved this archive, and their inclusion here doesn't mean they vouch for us or we vouch for them.

Health & medical information. Some of these organizations work in areas like mental health, addiction recovery, or wellness. Any health-related information referenced on this site in connection with them is provided for historical and informational context only. It is not medical advice, and it is not a substitute for consulting a qualified professional.

5. Ownership of original content

The original written copy, curation, and design of Warped Tour Hub are owned by Unite The United, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, and built and maintained by Brogan Thompson, a private individual, on its behalf. This original material is made available for non-commercial, fan and educational use.

6. Third-party content

Photographs, video, posters, and quoted material featured throughout the archive belong to their original photographers, publishers, artists, or other rights holders. We do not claim ownership of this material. It is used for non-commercial, historical, educational, and fair use purposes, and credited wherever a source is known. If you hold rights to content featured here and want it credited differently, discussed, or removed, see Section 9 below.

7. Permitted use of this site

You're welcome to browse, read, and share links to Warped Tour Hub for personal, non-commercial purposes. You may not:

- Scrape, bulk-download, or systematically copy the site or its content
- Republish, mirror, or redistribute the archive, in whole or substantial part, elsewhere
- Remove or obscure credit lines or source attributions
- Use the site or its content for any commercial purpose

8. Community submissions

By submitting a story, photograph, or other type of media to the Warped Tour Hub platform, you represent that such media is not trademarked or otherwise plagiarized or stolen content. Furthermore, by submitting any media to the Warped Tour Hub, you consent and grant the Warped Tour Hub and its affiliated platforms a non-exclusive, royalty-free license to publish it, attributed to whatever nickname or alias you provide, without compensation. The Warped Tour Hub reserves the right to edit submissions for length, clarity, or house style, and may decline to publish any submission at its discretion.

9. Copyright, removal & takedown requests

We comply with all legitimate requests to remove content, correct a mention, or take something down — not just copyright claims. This includes reports made for reasons such as plagiarism, offensive or inappropriate material, content unrelated to Warped Tour, or by request of someone shown or featured in the content. If you believe content on this site infringes your copyright, or you'd simply like something about you or your organization changed or removed, email vanswarpedtourhub@gmail.com. For formal copyright claims, please include:

- Your signature (physical or electronic)
- Identification of the copyrighted work you believe is infringed
- Identification of the specific content and where it appears on the site
- Your name and contact information
- A statement that you have a good-faith belief the use is unauthorized
- A statement, made under penalty of perjury, that you are authorized to act on the rights holder's behalf

We'll review every request in good faith and remove, credit, or otherwise address the content as appropriate, as quickly as we reasonably can.

10. No warranties, no insurance

This archive is built from public records, fan communities, interviews, and independent research. We make a genuine effort to verify dates and facts, but this is a volunteer, fan-driven project run by a private individual — not an official record, not a corporation, and not backed by any insurance policy. The site and its content are provided "as is," without warranty of any kind, including accuracy, completeness, or availability.

11. Limitation of liability & indemnification

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Warped Tour Hub, Unite The United, and Brogan Thompson are not liable for any damages, losses, or claims arising from your use of, or inability to use, this site, or from your reliance on anything published on it, including third-party content, external links, or community submissions.

By using this site, you agree not to bring a claim against, and to hold harmless, Warped Tour Hub, Unite The United, and Brogan Thompson for anything arising from your use of the site, its content, or any third-party site it links to.

12. Future projects & related intellectual property

These Terms govern warpedtourhub.com as it exists today. Any future version, expansion, spin-off, or new project built using the Warped Tour Hub name or its associated intellectual property is a separate undertaking with its own terms. Developing, launching, or changing a future or related project does not retroactively alter these Terms, does not expand the obligations or liabilities of this archive, and does not expose this site to claims, disputes, or liabilities arising from that separate project, or vice versa.

13. Governing law

These Terms are governed by the laws of the State of California, USA, without regard to conflict-of-law principles. This reflects where Unite The United, the project's rights holder, is based — it does not restrict who may access or use the site.

14. Changes to these Terms

We may update these Terms from time to time. Updates will be posted here with a new "last updated" date. Continuing to use the site after an update means you accept the revised Terms.
